TECHNICAL WIZ.

28 June 2013

Strategy/Trend Next Target 1,500

SET Closed 1,446.45 +22.07 VOL 61,930

Support 1 1,440 Resistance 1 1,460

Support 2 1,430 Resistance 2 1,470

The SET yesterday breached the first target of 1,450 points as expected before weakening slightly. Its W-shaped rebound remains in good shape, but in the short term we see negative sentiment as a result of a hanging man formation. Backed by a buying signal from the RSI and Momentum, the SET is expected to climb to test 1,500 points.

The SET is expected to rise further with the next target of 1,500 points. During the day, selling may occur at the resistance level of 1,460 points.

Short-Term Investors

We recommend a speculative play with the resistance level of 1,460 points and 1,470 points, respectively.

Medium-Term Investors

If the SET holds at 1,400 points, we recommend hold shares and sell them at 1,500 points.
